Reid Wilson elected treasurer of Real Estate, Probate and Trust Law Section of State Bar of Texas

Houston, August 1, 2018 — Reid Wilson, chair of the Wilson Cribbs + Goren law firm, has been elected treasurer of the Real Estate, Probate and Trust Law Section of the State Bar of Texas for 2018–2019. After a year as treasurer, Wilson will serve as chair-elect/secretary and then as chair of the section, both for one-year terms.

The Real Estate, Probate & Trust Law (REPTL) Section was created in 1939 (originally known as the State Bar Committee on Real Estate, Probate, and Trust Law) and is the second-oldest section of the State Bar of Texas. REPTL is a section of the State Bar of Texas composed of lawyers (as well as law students) who practice or have an interest in the fields of real estate, probate or trust law. It is the largest section of the state bar, with over 9,200 members.

Wilson is recognized as preeminent land use attorney in southeast Texas. He is a Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL), and is one of only three practicing Texas real estate attorney members holding the Counselors of Real Estate (CRE) designation. Board-certified in commercial real estate law since 1986, he brings to his practice his relationships and reputation with governmental lawyers and officials throughout southeast Texas. As the chair of Wilson Cribbs + Goren, Wilson has led the firm to becoming one of the go-to real estate boutiques in Texas.

Wilson Cribbs + Goren, PC is a boutique real estate law firm in Houston, Texas, established in 1985. The firm's attorneys have varied and complementary experience in all segments of the real estate industry. The firm boasts the most real estate attorneys in Houston who are board-certified in commercial real estate by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.
