

For immediate release

For more information, contact:
Carlos Arcos, Jaffe
713.826.5195; carcos@jaffepr.com

Reid Wilson and Anthony Marré join ULI Houston advisory board

Houston, Feb. 27, 2019 — Reid Wilson and Anthony Marré of Wilson Cribbs + Goren, PC have been invited to join the advisory board of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) Houston District Council for a two-year term.

The advisory board serves as the local leadership for the ULI and is made up of leading real estate and land use professionals and other community leaders in southeast Texas. Members are appointed by the chair and are responsible for ensuring that ULI Houston is properly funded, provides meaningful programs and projects, and supports ULI Houston goals and mission.

Wilson, chair of Wilson Cribbs + Goren, is recognized as the preeminent land use attorney in southeast Texas. Board-certified in commercial real estate law for more than 30 years, Wilson has maintained a practice that involves a broad array of work related to real estate law, as well as to both public and private land use regulations. He is a former chair of ULI Houston.

Marré focuses his practice on commercial real estate transactions and land use matters, and counsels clients in all segments of the real estate industry. As managing shareholder, he is responsible for crafting and executing the long-term strategic vision for the firm. Prior to joining the advisory board, Marré has served in various roles in ULI Houston.

Wilson Cribbs + Goren, PC is a boutique real estate law firm in Houston, Texas, established in 1985. The firm's attorneys have well-rounded, varied and complementary experience in all segments of the real estate industry. The firm boasts a significant number of real estate attorneys who are certified in commercial real estate law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. For more information, visit www.wcglaw.com.

###